

Statements that may be used for Activity 5

Cut them on the line so that you can distribute the statements to the students individually.

"You never choose me first for your sports-team"

"You're always copying from me."

"Whenever I lend you a pen, you won't give it back to me."

"You never let me play along."

"You're always disrupting the class."

"You're always trying to get a piece of my lunch."

"You never listen when I want to say something in class."

"You often get praise in class for ideas you got from me."

"When we're at recess, you're always playing with someone other than me."

"You are mean to certain children for no reason."
